

Egypt & Jordan: Two Samples

Notes:

>> Egypt and Jordan are two breathtaking countries that can be easily reached from Israel. With SETI, you can add to your Israel trip a two to four day excursion to Jordan or Egypt for just a few hundred dollars extra. These trips are a safe and fun way to explore other parts of the Middle East!

>> The following samples show two possible add-ons for trips to Egypt and Jordan. SETI also has longer trips available, which cover sites such as Luxor, Alexandria, Aswan, the Valley of the Kings, Sinai, Jerash, Mount Nebo, and more!

Destination: Egypt Arrival To Dahab

Cross the border from Israel to Egypt. Travel down the Sinai Peninsula to Dahab, one of the world's best diving destinations. Relax at the Red Sea.

Destination: Jordan Arrival to Petra

Cross the Sheikh Hussein Bridge into Jordan from Israel. Travel south, stopping to enjoy the Dead Sea and Mt. Nebo. Arrive in Petra and check in to hotel.

Day 1

Sinai and St. Catherine

Travel to St. Catherine's Monastery at Mount Sinai. See the place where Moses received the Ten Commandments. Later, drive to Cairo for an evening dinner cruise on the Nile.

Day 1

The Ancient City of Petra

Spend the day exploring Petra, one of the new "7 Wonders of the World." See the Treasury (featured in "Indiana Jones"), the ancient monastery (featured in "Transformers 2"), and the amphitheater.

Day 2

Cairo and Giza

Explore the Pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx, (includes 1 hour camel or horse ride). In the afternoon, tour the Egyptian Museum. Finally, revel in the night life of the Khan El-Khalili Bazaar.

Day 2

Wadi Rum

Travel by Jeep and camel caravan through the desert and mountains of Wadi Rum to meet your Bedouin hosts for food and music. Optional overnight stay in Bedouin tents, or return to hotel.

Day 3

Saqqara and Memphis

Visit Memphis, the ancient capital of Egypt, as well as the tombs and step pyramid at Saqqara. Later, tour the great Castle of Saladin and Muhammad Ali Mosque. Depart in the evening.

Day 3

Amman and Departure

Travel to Amman, the ancient city of Philadelphia and the capital of Jordan. Visit the old Roman theater, then head to the Airport for departure.
